

Republic of Kazakhstan

Over the past 15 years, Kazakhstan has invested approximately $35bn in the development of its transport sector. Over 2,500 kilometers of railways have been built. In 2026, more than 85% of all land freight traffic between China and Europe passes through Kazakhstan.

55 international transport corridor development projects, with a total investment of $32.6bn, are currently underway or planned by 2035.

Figure 1. Distribution of investments in the development of the Eurasian Transport Network by mode of transport, $bn.

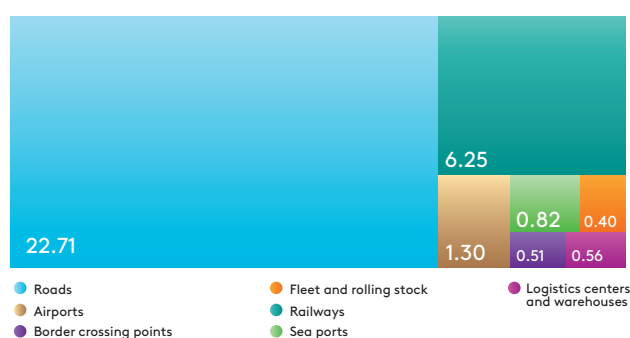

Figure 2. Distribution of investments by stages of investment projects, $bn.

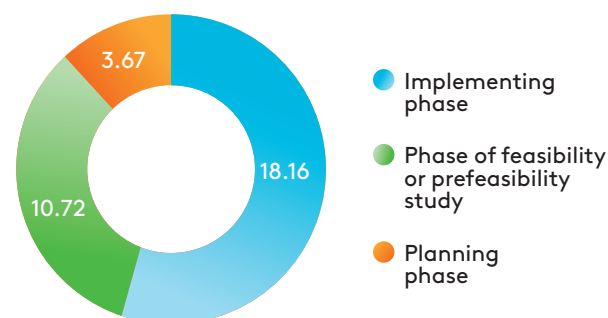

Figure 3. Investments in the development of transport corridors in Kazakhstan, $bn.

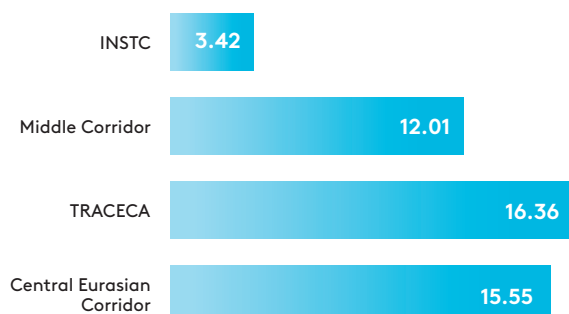

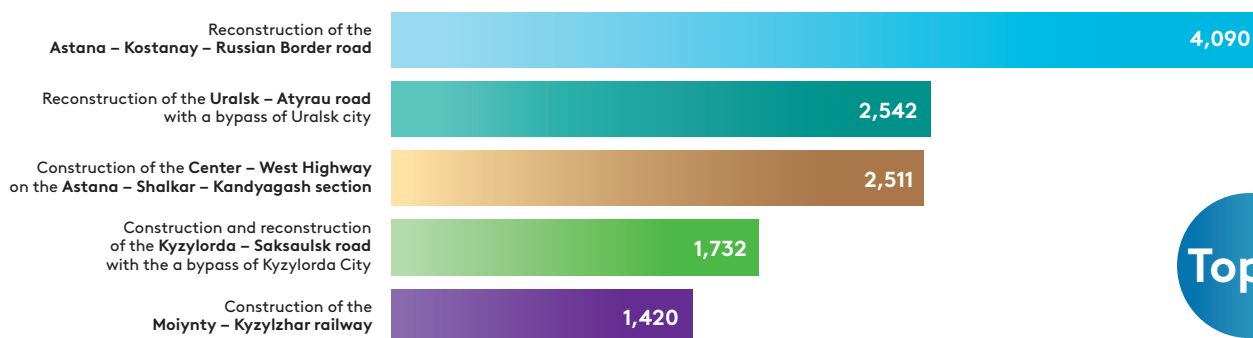

Figure 4. Distribution of projects by funding sources, number of projects

Figure 5. Top 5 projects for the development of transport corridors in Kazakhstan by investment volume, $mn.

Top-5

Source: estimates of EDB analysts.

